Brisca is a popular Spanish card game played by two teams of two with a 40-card Spanish-suited pack (like Mus) or two teams of three using a 48-card pack.

Mus is a card game that originated in the Basque Country and is widely played across Spain, France, Latin America, and American-Basque Communities.

Bring a pintxo (appetizer) to share and Txoko Ona will provide drinks.

MUSEO MUSEUM JURKEZPENAK PRESENTATION

“Gernika: Genealogy of a Lie”

Thursday, Feb. 16th 6:00PM
Basque Museum Free

Xabier Irujo will be presenting “Gernika: Genealogy of a Lie” in collaboration with Boise State Basque Studies. Irujo’s research follows the long tradition of uncovering the truth started by Noel Monks, George Steer, and Christopher Watson on the day Gernika was bombed. This lecture constitutes a practical and substantive contribution to discerning the difference between history based on partial and limited evidence that provide only a restricted and selective view of the facts, and that of a history that serves the truth, justice, and the memory of victims.
