EUSKALDUN IDAZLEA
BASQUE AUTHOR

Kirmen Uribe was born in 1970 in the small fishing town of Ondarroa, Bizkaia. Uribe's father was a trawlerman and his mother was a homemaker. You may enjoy his award-winning novel translated into English, Bilbao-New York-Bilbao.

When Liborio Uribe found that he was going to die, he wanted to once again see a painting by Aurelio Arteta, his wife's father. Liborio had spent his entire life at sea, like his son José, living out unforgettable adventures that fade into obscurity. Years later, faced with the same painting, Liborio's grandson Kirmen, a writer and poet, uses these family stories to write a novel. Bilbao - New York - Bilbao takes place during a flight to New York and tells the story of journeys of three generations of the same family. Through letters, diaries, e-mails, poems, and dictionaries, it creates a mosaic of memories and stories that form an homage to a world that has almost disappeared, as well as a hymn to the continuity of life
